

Cookie Policy

We use cookies on our site www.acornmediaenterprises.com for a number of purposes. They help us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website, and also allow us to improve our site. By continuing to browse the site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

Cookies are required for the operation of our website. They may include, for example; cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website and analytical/performance cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users find what they are looking for easily.

Cookies

A cookie is a small text file which is automatically saved on your computer when you visit our website and is used to help track activity across a website.

The cookies we use are only set in response to actions made by you such logging in or filling in forms.

You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but some parts of the site will not then work. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information.

Removing cookies

If you have any concerns about cookies, or want to remove cookies from your computer, please visit 'All About Cookies' at <http://www.allaboutcookies.org> which explains how to do this.

Collection of personal information

If you contact us via a form on our website your personal information will only be used by us to contact you. No personal data you send us will be disclosed to a third party without your permission.

If you wish us to remove any personal details we hold about you, please email us at data@acornmedia.com
